It's ridiculous to think Broadcasters will serve the public good by creating a monopoly and eliminating all competition. I've already been laid off as a result of this impending ruling because my employer is already cutting costs in anticipation of ruling the market place. The decision to loosen ownership rules is eroding the quality of news and creating more public distrust not only of tv stations but also their government.